COUNT ONE
(Conspiracy to Commit Bank Fraud)

The Grand Jury charges:

Overview

1. Between at least in or about 2018 and in or about 2022, ZHONG SHI GAO, a/k/a "George," NAIFENG XU, a/k/a "Andy," and FEI JIANG, a/k/a "Jeffrey," a/k/a "Brother Fei," the defendants, participated in a scheme with others to steal millions of dollars from financial institutions by causing transfers of funds between accounts they controlled, then falsely and fraudulently reporting that the transfers were unauthorized, which induced the financial institutions to credit them the amount of the transfers. The scheme proceeded in the following manner: First, GAO, XU, JIANG, and other members of the scheme would recruit other people—frequently foreign nationals from China and Taiwan temporarily residing in the United States—to open bank accounts at various bank branches in the New York City metropolitan area and elsewhere. Control over these bank accounts would then be given to GAO, XU, JIANG, and other members of the scheme. Second, GAO, XU, JIANG, and other members of the scheme would arrange for funds to be deposited and transferred between bank accounts controlled by members of the scheme. Next, GAO, XU, JIANG, and other members of the scheme would cause fraudulent reports to be filed with the banks claiming that these wire transfers were unauthorized. This prompted the banks to temporarily credit the accounts in the amount of the transferred funds, even though GAO, XU, JIANG, and other members of the scheme had in fact authorized the transfers and maintained control over the transferred funds all along. Finally, GAO, XU, JIANG, and other members of the scheme would arrange for the credited funds to be quickly withdrawn as cash or converted into cryptocurrency and moved to foreign cryptocurrency exchanges before the banks realized that the unauthorized-transfer reports were fraudulent. This resulted in GAO, XU, JIANG, and other members of the scheme effectively doubling their money while leaving the bank accounts with negative balances. In total, GAO, XU, JIANG, and other members of the scheme are responsible for over $10 million in actual losses to nearly a dozen banks and financial institutions.
